

Birzeit University's Institute of Women's Studies' 6th annual conference

Doing Politics in Palestine: Between Alienation and Participation

Panel 1: Knowledge Production and the Political Field: Political Activism in the Face of Hegemonic Conceptions

Moderator: Rema Hammami

1. Geo-political Knowledge and the Scheme of Exporting Knowledge/ Laura Khoury
2. after Neoliberalism: Building the Other Possible World/ Vijay Prashad
3. Playing House: Performances of the Spectacle in the New Palestine/ Abdul-Rahim Al-Shaikh
4. Reflections on Remembering, Forgetting, and Denial in Egyptian Storytelling/ Frances Hasso

Panel 2: Political Participation and Alienation within Palestinian Feminist Activism

Moderator: Jamil Khader

1. Formation of Feminist Concepts in a Context of National and Political Alienation post Oslo: Palestinian Situation/ Eileen Kuttab
2. Feminist Perspectives on the Forms of Political Participation/Alienation after Oslo/ Dalal Salameh, Khitam Saafin, Areen Hawari

Panel 3: Political and Organizational Transformations in Youth and Student Activism

Moderator: Lena Meari

1. "Altaqaddom" Student Newsletter: On the Relationship between the Form of Organization and the Union and Democratic Struggle of Students During the Eighties/ Wissam Rafeedie
2. Youth Mobilization in Palestine: Quickly from Spring to Autumn/ Firas Jaber
3. Student Movement at Birzeit University, the Student Strike as a Case Study/ Student Movement Representatives